

Festival News

For the sixteenth year the Uphill Village Society is pleased to present The Great Uphill Scarecrow Festival helping to 'Keep The Village In Uphill'.

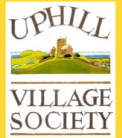

There are sure to be no shortage of scarecrows to see over the festival weekend on the theme of famous characters from Britain's history - fact and fiction!

They will be found all around the village, so make sure you keep looking - you never know where you might find one. All free and all for your enjoyment.

The Uphill Village Society exists to preserve, promote and enhance the character and interests of the village of Uphill for the benefit of the village and residents. For more details visit www.uphillvillage.org.uk

Tour the village and find the scarecrows

Don't forget you will find scarecrows all over in the village. Look in all the gardens, along all the roads, along all the verges and even on the rooftops - maybe!!

This is not a competition but a festival that we hope you will enjoy and will help show everyone visiting what a fun place Uphill is. So no prizes but see how many scarecrows you can find and write down your five favourite characters. Return form to 2 New Church Road, Uphill.

How many scarecrows did you find?

Which were your favourite scarecrows?
